Wild Alhambra Riots Involve 1,000 Youths

ALHAMBRA, Calif. (UPI) — An estimated 1,000 youths staged four wild riots for about two hours hours early today in a five-block area of this suburban Los Angeles community, police reported.

More than 100 law enforcement officers poured into town from surrounding communities to help quell the melee, in which police believed there were no serious injuries.

The California Highway Patrol sped 15 radio cars to help cordon off the riot area, and 50 sheriff's radio units from the Los Angeles area assisted them.

Off-duty policemen augmented by reserves streamed into Alhambra from the surrounding communities of San Gabriel, South San Gabriel, Pasadena, South Pasadena and Monterey Park.

At least two busloads of youths, mostly teen-agers, were booked on a variety of charges and police estimated the final number arrested by 10 a.m. EDT probably would be about 100.

"It'll probably be in the wee hours of the morning before we're through booking suspects," said one busy officer.

The melee erupted shortly after midnight at a drive-in restaurant when special policemen tried to break up a scuffle with some of the teenagers.

Within minutes four riots were going on in the five-block area. All drive-in restaurants in the area were ordered closed immediately by authorities. Roadblocks were set up to confine the rioters and authorities leaped into the fray and began making arrests, hauling the youths away in two buses.

"We had 100 kids fighting 10 cops," said one breathless policeman at the height of the battle.

May Be New Drugs for 'Mr. Sam'

DALLAS (UPI) — A specialist disclosed today that experimental drugs may be given to House Speaker Sam Rayburn in a few days in the hope of at least slowing the cancer which is slowly taking his life.

The specialist is Dr. Ralph Tompsett, director of internal medicine at Baylor University Medical Center where Rayburn's cancer was discovered Thursday.

He is a special consultant in the Rayburn case.

Tompsett said the Food and Drug Administration labels part of the drugs which may be given to Rayburn as "experimental." He said they are "chemo-therapeutic drugs" and indicated that the best hope for is that they will slow the cancer which has apparently spread through much or most of Rayburn's body.

Rest and the administration of certain drugs, especially cortisone, raised the 79-year-old Rayburn's strength today to the point where he dangled his feet over the side of his bed, ate a small but solid breakfast and ordered steak for lunch.

U Thant Seen U. N. Secretary

Agreement by JFK and Gromyko Expected from Talk

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The appointment of Burma's U Thant as acting secretary general of the United Nations appeared to be all but settled today.

Final agreement on Thant was expected to emerge from President Kennedy's talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in Washington, no disclosure was likely until loose ends are tied up here next week.

Seek Early Break

Uncommitted diplomats, acknowledging that there had been no formal accord to install Thant as a temporary replacement for Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, looked for a break in the situation early in the week that would assure almost unanimous support for the Burmese ambassador.

Informed sources said the major roadblock was the dispute over what under secretaries should serve under the acting chief executive.

The East-West struggle to fill the void left by Hammarskjold's death apparently was the first of a series of problems during the current assembly, Russia and the United States clashed in the assembly's political committee Friday over the question of priority of debate on the questions of disarmament and a nuclear test ban.

Asks Test Ban Talks

U.S. Delegate Arthur H. Dean demanded top priority for discussion of a test ban, to be considered separately from disarmament. Soviet Ambassador Valerian A. Zorin insisted that general disarmament be discussed first, followed by suspension of nuclear tests and other related items. The committee adjourned without making a decision. The new U.N. chief.

UAW and Ford Still Far Apart On Five Issues

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers and Ford Motor Co. seemed as far apart as ever today toward resolving five issues which triggered a nationwide strike by 120,000 workers last Tuesday.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther and Ford Vice President Malcolm L. Denise have thus far been unable to come to terms on a series of problems covering working conditions. However, they have reported "encouraging" results in solving plant-level disputes.

Neither Reuther nor Denise would be pinned down on when the strike might end.

Seek Woman of Expensive Taste

Palm Springs police today are seeking a woman with expensive tastes.

Shirley Munshaw, manager of the Profile DuMond dress shop, 15 The Plaza, reported at 10:37 p.m. Friday that a $157 gold silk sheath dress, and another dress valued at $40 had been taken from the shop sometime in the afternoon. The theft apparently occurred when a small woman came in to try on dresses, and left saying she would return today, officers surmised.

Guarantees in Berlin Offered

BERLIN (UPI) — Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan said today Russia does not want war and would offer "all effective guarantees" to respect the rights of a free city in West Berlin.

Mikoyan, in a speech at an East Berlin rally commemorating the 12th anniversary of the East German state, called for conclusion of a German peace treaty. But he set no deadline and made no threats against the West.

East German Communist leaders took a stronger tack. They warned that Soviet rockets and nuclear weapons were ready for use if the West tried to block a German peace treaty by "war provocations." They said any Western provocation against East Germany's borders would mean the start of a great war.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev marked the anniversary with a message promising a German peace treaty would be signed "in the very near future."

Interior Minister Karl Maron, in an order of the day to Communist East Germany's armed forces today, said West German leaders "intent to block conclusion of a peace treaty with war provocations."

"In view of the clear superiority of the socialist world system, such attempts are doomed to failure," Maron said. "The most modern large rockets and nuclear weapons of monstrous destructive power stand ready in the Soviet

Deadlock Over Berlin Remains Tight as Ever

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The East-West deadlock over Berlin remained tight as ever today despite a two-hour conference between President Kennedy and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Official sources said the meeting Friday night at the White House produced no "give" whatsoever.

Kennedy, according to U.S. officials, emphasized that the West is as determined as ever to defend its rights in Berlin and its access to the Red-encircled city.

He made it clear that he wanted Gromyko, who leaves for Moscow Monday, to emphasize this Allied stand to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Restates Khrushchev's Demand Gromyko, for his part, restated Khrushchev's demand that any formal Berlin negotiations be based on Russia's proposed peace treaty with Communist East Germany, the terms of which would jeopardize Allied access rights to Berlin.

The United States has flatly refused to negotiate on this restricted basis.

American officials said the next effort to break the diplomatic deadlock must come in Moscow after the U.S. ambassador to Russia Llewellyn E. Thompson, now here for consultations, returns to his post in about ten days.

Vacationing Passengers All Perish

Hits Mountain At 6,000 Feet In Pyrenees

TOULOUSE, France (UPI) — Searchers today found the wreckage of a chartered British airliner that crashed with 34 persons aboard high in the Pyrenees mountains near Perpignan, France. Police said it was believed there were no survivors.

The aircraft, a twin-engine DC3 belonging to a British firm, vanished early today on a flight from London to Perpignan where its passengers were to have transferred to a bus for a vacation tour of Spain's Mediterranean coast.

The plane had 31 British passengers and a crew of three.

A constellation search plane sighted the wreckage soon after 2 p.m. Later police at Prades, southwest of Perpignan, said they understood there were no survivors.

The plane appeared to have crashed on the northwest face of Canigou mountain, at a height of over 6,000 feet.

Officials said the plane probably was caught in a storm and forced to change course. They said it might have struck a peak in the Carlitte Mountain area of the central Pyrenees, about 12 miles from the ski resort of Fond Romeu.

Ship Strike Under Study

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Contending parties in the West Coast maritime strike today studied a proposal by a three-man panel of federal experts aimed at ending the 10-day walkout.

Both sides were expected to report to James Healy, a member of the panel, on whether they would resume negotiations using the federal proposal as a base.

The other two panel members, Willard Wirtz and William Simkin, have returned to Washington. They and Healy were sent here by the Secretary of Labor to try to help settle the strike.

A spokesman for the striking Masters, Mates and Pilots Union said that the union's Policy Committee was "discussing" the proposal, while no word had been received from the shipowners, represented by the Pacific Maritime Association.

The strike has already idled 42 ships and eventually could shut down the 135 vessels operated by the association. This represents roughly 15 per cent of the American merchant marine.

Cheap-Shelter Promise By President Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The administration is preparing a plan that would let individual home owners get fallout shelters for no more than $100 to $150 apiece, according to President Kennedy.

President Kennedy told a group of newspaper publishers from New Jersey that the plan would be revealed in about a month. However, the publishers were warned not to disclose most of what the President told them Friday.

Association publisher Joseph M. Cudone of the Montclair, N.J., Times said Kennedy told them that information about the shelters would be released in about 30 days.

Kennedy planned to recommend that "everybody take advantage of the plan," Cudone said. Eugene C. Farrell, editor of the Jersey Journal, said Kennedy felt that "any prudent family" should provide itself with a fallout shelter.

Kennedy told Gov. Nelson Rockefeller that a new federal civil defense policy was "in the works," Kennedy and Rockefeller met before the publishers' meeting.

In a letter to state civil defense directors, Kennedy said radioactive fallout could extend several hundred miles from a target area and "account for the major part of the casualties" in a nuclear attack.

But protection against this is within reach "of an informed America willing to face the facts and act," he said.

The government, Kennedy said, was "moving forward to bring fallout shelter for large groups of people under very austere conditions."

Two College Boys Die From Unknown Causes

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (UPI)—A coroner's jury has returned a verdict of death "from causes unknown" in the case of two male University of North Carolina students found dead on their beds in a dormitory room Friday.
Autopsies were ordered after a preliminary investigation.
The jury found nothing to indicate what killed William Harrison Johnson Jr., 24, a graduate student from Statesville, N.C., and James Michael Barham, 21, of Burlington, N.C.
A university spokesman said there were no external signs of violence, no signs of a struggle and no indication that the two had been drinking.
An official said it would be at least "a couple of days" before he could determine the cause of the deaths from autopsies.
The two students were found in their room in Cobb Dormitory. Both were clad in night clothes and were lying on their backs in separate beds.
Both Johnson and Barham were "self-help" students who worked as waiters in Lenoir Hall on the campus.
Their bodies were discovered shortly before noon by a janitor sent to look for them after they failed to report for work.

Food Fads Boom Into Top Racket

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Do you know how to spot a health quack — the fellow who promises to cure your arthritis, put hair back on your scalp or restore your youthful figure?

Many Americans evidently don't, judging by estimates given to the National Congress on Medical Quackery.

The American Medical Association (AMA) estimates that Americans spend $1 billion a year on useless and even dangerous "cures," mechanical gadgets, food fads and other quack devices.

The AMA's department of investigation, a clearing house of information about quacks for 50 years, says watch out for the man who:

—Uses a special or "secret" machine or formula he claims can cure disease.

—Guarantees a quick cure.

—Advertises or uses case histories and testimonials to promote his cure.

—Claims constantly for medical investigation and recognition.

—Claims medical men are persecuting him or are afraid of his competition.

—Tells you that surgery or X-rays or drugs will cause more harm than good.

Safety Gains in City Reported

Frank Thompson, regional southern California official of the National Safety Council, reported to city and Palm Springs Safety Council officials that the city showed traffic safety gains in 1960, but emphasized need for continued safety programming.

"The report was encouraging for safety in Palm Springs, though we didn't win any safety awards."

PS Safety Council president Robert Hill said.

Both Hill and City Manager Dan Wagner emphasized that Palm Springs' resort structure gives the city a statistical imbalance with many other cities of similar population.

Two Fatalities

"This is a city with 13,500 people at times, and 50,000 over seasonal weekends," Hill explained.

Palm Springs had two traffic fatalities in 1960, a reduction of one from the preceding three year average. Lowest year in the comparative period was 1957, with one fatality.

Hill emphasized that the report figures indicated local police "are doing an excellent job — but do need some more help to do the planned safety control job."

The National Safety Council statistics, comparing Palm Springs with 483 cities of comparable population, showed gains in 1960 in performance against recommended criteria for safety programs. The city registered a 63 per cent tally last year, compared with a 57 per cent total in 1959.

High Point

High point in the reported performance against criteria of the NSC was in public traffic safety education. The 1960 count showed a 77 per cent score against "ideal" recommendations, a solid jump up from 59 per cent in 1959.

Second high was in school traffic safety education, with 70 per cent, up from 42 per cent the previous year. Low point was in organization for traffic safety improvement, which dropped from 44 per cent to four per cent.

"It merely reflects that while we communicate constantly, we don't call many meetings," Hill observed.

Commends Training

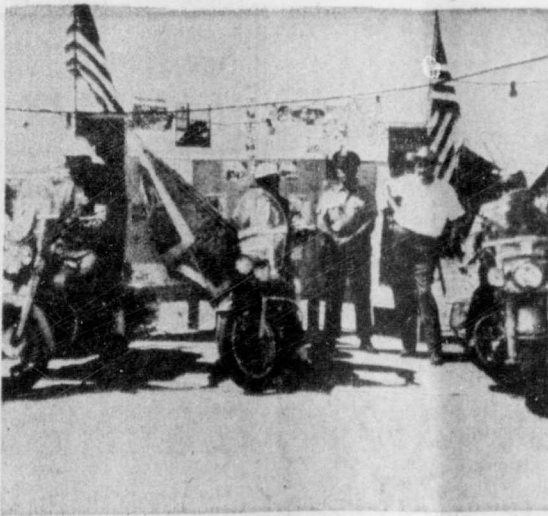

The report commended the city's "much stronger traffic training program," and offered the following five recommendations for further improvement:

The traffic training for police officers be increased to a minimum of 40 hours per man;

That hit-run convictions be increased (a discrepancy in reporting tabulation is noted here, Hill reported);

That police crack down on hazardous law violations, apparently to gain a 40 per cent increase in convictions, to match nationwide "norms";

The drunk driving policing be stiffened; and ROAD RIDERS ARRIVE in Twenty-nine Palms to plan for some 1500 motorcycle enthusiasts that will conduct a ride to this Hi-Desert community, Oct. 14 and 15. The group met with local sheriff's deputies and chamber of commerce representatives. From the left, Ronnie and Peg Bishop, Bea Rathbun, Deputy Ray Shaddox, Mel Heininger, coordinator for sponsor, the City of Hope, and Darrol Peacor, chairman of the Southern California Road Riders Committee.

Community Concerts Schedule Announced

The schedule for the Community Concert series in Palm Springs, Twenty-nine Palms, Banning and Coachella has been announced by Patricia Barton, publicity chairman for the Palm Springs Community Concert Association.

Palm Springs will have three concerts this year, during January, February and March, Mrs. Barton said. The first concert is to be held on Jan. 18 and will feature Fernando Corena. On Feb. 22, the association will present the New York Pro Musica Group, and on Mar. 13, Andres Segovia will appear as the star of the series.

Mrs. Barton said that although the membership drive was held for the year in April, there may be a possibility that additional memberships can be obtained prior to the season's opening.

Community concerts are also scheduled to be presented at the Marine Corps Base theater in Twenty-nine Palms. On Oct. 29, a matinee will be held, featuring The Medleys. Again on Feb. 10, the Community Concert Association will present the Ximenez Vargas Dance Co.

Four concerts have been scheduled at the Coachella Valley Joint Union High School Auditorium. The first will be held Monday, Nov. 13, and features the production, "World Of Dance."

The second concert will be presented by Marjorie Mitchell, noted pianist, Thursday evening, Jan. 11. Simoneau and Alarie will appear at the Coachella Valley school on March 19, and as the final event of the season at that school, the concert series will conclude with the Paganini String Quartet, Monday evening, April 11.

County Second In Safety Test

Riverside County placed second in the California County Employee Safety contest, according to information received from the State Department of Industrial Relations.

The contest was based on the lowest number of disabling injuries per million man-hours worked during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1961. The competing counties were divided into five groups according to the number of employees.

Wind Erosion Control Plan To Planners

The city planning commission has heard a recommendation that building developments be tied to already developed areas rather than in isolated tracts as one of five points for wind erosion control.

City planning director Richard Coleman recommended that a solid fence at least six feet high be constructed at right angles to major wind direction when a development joins an undeveloped area. When necessary, the commission might require plantings as additional wind barrier.

Planners Okay Outdoor Area For Restaurant

The city planning commission has tentatively approved, subject to proof of adequate parking facilities, the application of George E. Di Salvo for a conditional use permit for a 24-seat outdoor dining area in conjunction with his restaurant at 641 North Palm Canyon Drive.

A total of 24 spaces are required for the operation. Approximately half the parking may be provided through lease agreement with an adjacent service station, the commission said.

Other action included architectural approval for a six-unit addition to the Capri Hotel and approval for an addition to a building at 4183 East Palm Canyon Drive, as requested by owner Milton Hicks, but a subsequent building will be placed in front of the new windowless addition, Hicks said.

The commission continued to Oct. 18 a continued application by Feybor, Inc., for a change of zone from guest ranch to limited multiple family for a parcel east of South Palm Canyon Drive south of the Desert Skies Hotel, and a letter from Ed Meyerson concerning the Tam-O-Shanter recreation area on East Ramon Road.

The commission will meet Tuesday at 9 a.m. to consider a request by John Williams for architectural approval of a warehouse at 688 Eugene Road, and at 11 a.m., it will consider a councilmanic minute order for preparation of a zoning study for the Chino Canyon area. The new tramway desert station will be located in Chino Canyon.

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD TEARFULLY ADMITS RAPE-KILLING OF GIRL

ELMHURST, Ill. (UPI) — A freckle-faced 13-year-old boy has tearfully admitted he raped and killed little Yvonne Elliott, 7, in a swamp near this Chicago suburb.

Steven Schloneger, a blond, 115-pound seventh grader, confessed to Du Page County sheriff's deputies after two hours of questioning. The boy repeated his admissions in front of his mother, Mrs. Helen June Pivonka, and stepfather, Edward Pivonka, but declined to sign the 20-page statement to authorities.

The boy was held as a delinquent at the county jail in Wheaton today. State's Attorney William Bauer said he would file a murder warrant against the youth in county court Monday.

Yvonne, a pretty blonde third grader, was found Wednesday night by her father, Edward, 27, in a flashlight search of the from the Elliott home. The nude body lay face down in a pond of stagnant water. The little girl's hands were bound behind her back with a ragged towel. A mechanic's cloth was stuffed in her mouth as a gag.

Coroner Dr. Samuel K. Lewis said the girl had been raped. He listed the cause of death as a combination of suffocation and drowning.

Information supplied by Steve Fisher, 7, a playmate of Yvonne, helped lead to the arrest. Young Fisher said he was walking with the girl past the Schloneger home, about three blocks from the Elliott residence, when young Schloneger approached them and asked Yvonne her name.

The Fisher boy said Schloneger then asked him if he wished to accompany the older youth and Yvonne "into the weeds." The Fisher boy then left.

In his statement, Steven said he led the girl "into the weeds" and asked her to disrobe. She started to cry. He said he began "poking her with a stick." He bound her hands and gagged her and then pushed her head in the water, he said, and when she stopped struggling he took her clothes off and raped her.

Police said the youth "slept like a baby" after the confession.

Woman's Club to Be Given $5000

Palm Springs Woman's Club directors, who were guests of Mrs. Austin McManus at a luncheon at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel, learned that their hostess, who has often been called "First Lady of Palm Springs," is making a gift of $5000 to the club. The gift is made with the provision that most of the money shall be used to bring the best possible programs to the club.

In discussing the matter with club representatives, Mrs. McManus, who gave the land on which the clubhouse was built in 1938, expressed her continued interest in the club. She said that she desires to make it possible for club programs to include stimulating talks by nationally known figures, as well as cultural programs along creative lines, so that the club maintains its position of leadership. She expressed the hope that it might make the women of Palm Springs "more conscious of the times we live in."

"It's time," she said, "for the women to step forth and lead their community to better things." She added that this might very well be the nucleus for a wide spread movement, and philosophized that if the individual begins to concentrate on doing the best he can it might better the world situation. "We all need to be more aware of the grave problems confronting the world today," she warned.

With this year's club programs partially contracted for by program chairman Mrs. Howard Matthews and her committee, it was decided to concentrate on the two open dates, in January and in March, and to arrange an extra meeting or two. Due to the limited seating capacity, these special meetings must be limited to members, it was decided.

In her discussion with the board, Mrs. McManus promised that if the first $5000 is expended wisely, a similar gift will be forthcoming next year. She agreed with the board that a portion of the amount, approximately $1000 should be spent in refurbishing the clubhouse, which is now 23 years old.

The generous offer of Mrs. McManus was presented to the board by past president Mrs. George O. Wheeler, who acted as liaison between Mrs. McManus and the board.

Mrs. Irwin Wright, club president, and her board expressed warm appreciation of Mrs. McManus' gift, which will relieve the financial pressure on the club which finds maintenance of its clubhouse a heavy drain on its resources.

Present at the luncheon meeting were Mrs. Wright, Wheeler, Matthews, M. D. Cartwright, vice president; Charles Greason, ways and means chairman; Charlotte Goodwin, house chairman; Con Maffie, hospitality; Jerome Dreier, publicity; Lola Chandler, member-ship.

ASSURING A BRIGHT FUTURE for Palm Springs Woman's Club, Mrs. Austin McManus, seated, announced her gift to the club of $5000 to be spent chiefly for the best possible lecturers and entertainment for club programs. Smiling happily at the news are, from left, Mrs. Irwin Wright, club president; Mrs. Howard Matthews, program chairman; and Mrs. George O. Wheeler, past president, who acted as liaison between Mrs. McManus and the board. (Desert Sun Photo)

Tonight when North Shore Beach & Yacht Club holds its second birthday party, it will honor Trav Rogers, long-time desert resident, who was charter club manager and as such is rated No. 1 member.

Bob Taliaferro, club manager, has made an effort to get together as many as possible of the first 100 members of the club, to make this party a real celebration of its second anniversary.

Tanned from their summer at the seashore, where they have been occupying their home on Balboa Peninsula, Alta and George Roberson have reopened their home on Tahquitz, and Alta was one of the first of Thunderbird's women golfers to get back on the course.

George and his fishing pals, Clarence Beesmyer and George Holstein, spent much of the summer on his motor cruiser "Mandy Lou and George II" which is named after his two grandchildren.

It's back to Europe for Kay (Mrs. Dolph) Obergfel, who was there this summer with Edna (Mrs. Ed) Rohbart.

Kay and Dolph flew across the Atlantic today... he on business and she because there are so many things she missed seeing this summer. After a week in Paris, they will motor along the French and Italian Rivières, and then visit Rome and Switzerland.

In Paris, they will join Marion and Clarence Brown, who are still abroad. Clarence, one of our most distinguished directors, is slated to receive an award at the Louvre this coming week.

The Obergfels will visit Amsterdam and London, before coming home on the last sailing of the Liberte, which has been sold to Japan. They should be back in Palm Springs around Nov. 10.

Manager Jim Runte greeted us with a demand to "take off your shoes" when we arrived at the press party, which he hosted on opening night at Ocotillo Lodge. He said it was to call attention to the handsome new carpeting, but actually he fitted out each guest with red bootie socks provided by airline executive Bob Cheadle, who was among the honored guests, and it added to the friendly informality of the party.

Carroll Coates, delayed by freeway traffic managed to arrive in time to play the piano in the lounge where he will preside this winter.

After the party, Eddie Davidson, former Ocotillo manager, now at the Spa, assembled his guests for the dinner party, which he had planned for opening night. He headed a table which included Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grow, Mrs. Ruth Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schooss, Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford and Miss Jan Lotz.

The host, who is a native of Indiana, where he still owns a 40-acre farm, had assembled several fellow Hoosiers for his dinner, including the Growes, Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Schooss.

Among opening night diners in the Candlewood Room were Cliff Brown and Shirley Dunfield, whose wedding took place at Indian Wells this afternoon. With them were her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Messinger of Salt Lake City, and Miss Jeano Bailard, who is here from Carpinteria to attend the wedding. Jeano is staying at the Racquet Club, which won't open officially until the 21st.

Among others in the dinner crowd were the George Alexanders, whose Desert Inn opened the following night; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunas, the Bob Grundis, Abe Deutschers and Harold Simons, the Robert Ferrers, year around residents at Ocotillo; the Nicholas Brazeys of Beverly Hills, Richard Atwoods of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Amos of Long Beach.

Joins Staff of Coachella Valley Savings & Loan

A newcomer to Palm Springs is Mrs. Mabel McFarland, who has been engaged to do public relations work for Coachella Valley Savings & Loan Association.

With a background of radio and advertising agency experience, Mrs. McFarland came here from Council Bluffs, Iowa, where she was with City National Bank, in charge of public relations and personnel.

A member of Business & Professional Women's Club and PEO, she shares an apartment at Merito Manor with Mrs. Grace Morgan, who is a school days friend from Iowa.

WAIF Will Hold First Meeting on Monday

When Palm Springs Chapter of World Adoption International Fund holds its first fall meeting on Oct. 9 at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Glenn Austin at 735 Prescott Drive, Mrs. Austin will be starting her third consecutive year as head of WAIF.

Monday's meeting will be the only open meeting of the year, with both active and supporting members invited to attend.

Reports on the progress of the WAIF Community Day Nursery will be made by Mrs. Frank Bennett, chairman of this new project that was started last year. There will also be discussion of plans for the annual fashion show luncheon, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Hurrell, which will be held at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel on Nov. 25, and of the Sixth Annual WAIF Ball, which is again under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leo Owens and will be held in the Riviera's Mediterranean Room on March 10.

WAIF board members for the coming year include: Mrs. Austin, president; Mrs. Frank Bennett, executive vice president; Mrs. Leo Owens, 1st vice president; Mrs. Lee Walls, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Cyrus Oistad, treasurer; Mrs. Zippo Marx, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Lippert, recording secretary; Mrs. Clifford Henderson, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Daniel Wagner, membership chairman; Mrs. Eric Stainton, ways and means; Mrs. Carl Schooss, publicity; Mrs. Donald McDermott, parliamentarian.

New members will be introduced at the Monday meeting, and tea will be served following the business session.

CREAMS FRIES

NEW YORK (UPI) — Hashed french fries in cream are easy to make. Saute 1/4 cup each of chopped onion and diced green pepper in 1 tablespoon of butter until the vegetables are tender but not brown. Remove from heat. Stir in 1 tablespoon of flour, 1/4 teaspoons of salt and 1/2 teaspoons of celery salt. Add half and half (half milk, half cream) all at once and return to heat. Cook, stirring constantly until smooth and thick. Blend in 1 (1 pound) package of frozen french fries and 1/4 cup of diced pimientos. Heat to serving temperature, stirring often. Serves 4 to 6.

Accompanying her will be Mesdames Martin Morrison, vice president and chapter advisor; Toia Ravitch, membership chairman; and Isaac Kashdon, education chairman. They will be presented by Mrs. Max Grone, the local chapter's representative on the regional board.

Mrs. Philip Zanville, who was delegate to the Hadassah National Convention in Denver in August, will report on the gathering, which brought 1,300 delegates together to begin the celebration of Hadassah's Golden Jubilee Year. This is a luncheon meeting under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ben Jaffe. It is open to visiting members of Hadassah and friends.

Add egg and water, let stand 10 minutes and brown on a lightly greased griddle. Each envelope of mix makes 10 to 12 small pancakes, or four servings. (French's).

AAUW Program Will Present Indian Dancers

All women college graduates in the desert area are welcome to attend as special guests when the Palm Springs branch of the American Association of University Women meets Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 7:45 p.m. in the Woman's Clubhouse on South Calhoun Road, according to Mrs. Florence Hart Larned, membership chairman. AAUW requirements include a degree from recognized universities and colleges.

Paul Semu, Indian medicine man, will introduce five professional Indian dancers from the Laguna Tribe of New Mexico. The group will perform several authentic western Indian dances, including the spear, hoop, eagle, and war dances. Semu, who is sponsoring the dancers, also will relate some of his experiences while traveling among various tribes in California, New Mexico, and Arizona. Father Semu, as he is known among the tribes, is particularly interested in the problems of alcoholics, and had had remarkable success in curing them. The program will be introduced by Mrs. Val Samuelson, program chairman.

Mrs. Charles Sakin, AAUW president, will outline briefly the projects and aims of the club, and will introduce the board members. Following the program, refreshments will be served and a social hour enjoyed under the direction of hospitality chairman, Mrs. Joseph Clapp. Hostesses for the evening will be Mesdames Emmett Connors, Helen Putor, James Huenergardt, Lola Gardner and Charles Kasmer.

Stringy corned beef cookers take heed! Corned beef should be thin-sliced and sliced against the grain, and never over-cooked. Cured meats become softened during the curing process. If you overcook, corned beef will become soft to the falling-apart-point.

Television in Review

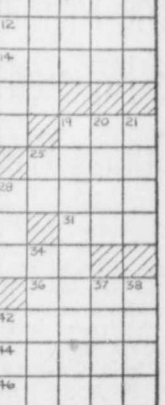

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — The new fall styles for CBS-TV's Thursday night wardrobe parade by Thursday night and displayed all the appeal of threadbare hand-me-downs.
For early-evening wear there was "Frontier Circus." The middle-of-the-evening costumes were "The Bob Cummings Show" and "The Investigators," both right off the rack.
For its late-night frock, CBS discarded the comedy and adventure pattern and whirled in with its familiar Sunday best, a perceptive news special, "Where We Stand: War or Peace?"
To start at the beginning: "Frontier Circus" is that variation of "Wagon Train" in which animals instead of people roll westward on horse-drawn wagons. The opening episode, "The Depths of Fear," unfortunately was too much "frontier" and not enough "circus."
Aldo Ray portrayed a lion tamer who destroyed his career by seeking the company of bottled pink elephants. Ray was given one last chance to get on the wagon, teetotaler-wise and circus-wise, by Chill Wills and John Derek, owners of the circus. He also had the support of Bethel Leslie, the frustrated wife of a lion tamer, played by James Gregory. She told Ray, "You've stopped running now" after he told her about his late wife. "It was in Paris that I found out about the others," he said.
The story, dialogue and characters failed, collectively and sep-

The Ministry Is Honored During Week

This Sunday the Coachella Valley Christian Church, Avenue 50 and Jackson, Indio, observes the Week of the Ministry.

The Rev. David T. Kagiwada has chosen as the sermon topic of the 11 a.m. service, "What Makes a Minister?" His remarks will be in an autobiographical nature but also will point up the making of a minister in a general sense.

The Week of the Ministry has been observed by the Christian Churches every October since first approved by the International Convention, meeting in Minneapolis, in 1901.

The sanctuary choir under the direction of Martin K. Brown will sing, "Behold the Lamb of God," accompanied by Katharine McMillan, organist.

Child care is provided during the worship hour.

Dr. Blackstone Continues Community Sermon Series

The morning worship services at the Community Church of Palm Springs are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Dr. Blackstone will preach using for his subject "What is the Church?" This is the fourth in a series of sermons on the Church which are a preparation for the Dedication Services to be held on Nov. 12 in the New Sanctuary.

The Sanctuary Choir will present an anthem, "Father of Heaven Whose Love Profound" by Healey Willan, under the direction of Dan Kammeyer accompanied by Mildred Kammeyer.

Sunday School is held at 9:30 with classes of instruction for all ages. A nursery is provided during 9:30 and 11 a.m. and a special Children's Church service is held during the 11 a.m. service to care for the young children.

The Adult Bible Class, Frank Cary teacher, is holding an informal continental breakfast between 8:30 and 9:30, preceding the class session in the Women's Club House.

Two other adult classes meet at 9:30. The class for young married couples at 245 Cahulla Road, and the class for single young adults at 251 San Jacinto Drive. Dr. Blackstone is beginning a series of instruction classes in preparation for reception into membership for those wishing to join the church on Nov. 5. The class will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoons and will present, informally, the Basic Truths of the Christian Faith.

Youth Meetings are held at 6:30 with a special gathering of junior high young people and their parents this evening to discuss their departmental program. At the evening service the Youth Choir will sing an anthem entitled "Be Thou My Vision." Rev. Charles Brown will preach on the subject "What Will People Think?" All are welcome.

The Women's Association will hold its first monthly meeting of the season on Oct. 10 with a potluck salad, dessert luncheon followed by a meeting with the theme, "God's People in God's World."

Attendance Is Reaching Goal Set for '62

With all hands turning to, the Sunday School attendance campaign at the Trinity Baptist Church of Indio moved onward and upward toward its goal of "262 by 1962" with 233 in attendance this past Sunday.

It is expected that another gigantic step will be made this Sunday, with the countdown reaching 7-Bible.

During the Sunday School opening exercises, emphasis will be placed on the Bible, with Rev. George Gulian presenting a challenge to everyone to be more consistent in Bible Study.

The Sunday Morning worship service will feature a quartet consisting of Mrs. Leona Gulian, Mrs. Loretta Parsons, George Haydock and Dean Halsey.

A baptismal service will be held Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at the Central Baptist Church, Date and Clinton Streets.

Those awaiting baptism are Gary Bradrick, Ann Brown, Linda Blankenship, Willie Blankenship and Mark Bacon. Also being received into the membership will be Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bradrick and Paul Johnson.

New officers were elected for Jet Cadets, a youth group for 3rd to 6th graders. They are: Patti Spencer, president and Anita Gulian, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bradrick are the new sponsors for the junior high C.Y.F., taking in grades seven and eight. Their first meeting will be held this Sunday at 6:15 p.m. All junior highers are invited to attend.

"Hold that Line for Christ" is the program title for the High School C.Y.F. The program will be presented in the form of a Football newscast. Those participating will be: Richard Housewright, Sonia Franklin, Sylvia Hoffmaster and Bruce Allee.

The next step in construction began on the new Christian Education unit. Bert Bagwell and Denzel Blankenship are supervising the construction.

Mecca Holy To 400 Million

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

To more than 400 million people—one-seventh of the human race—the holiest place on earth is a hot, dusty little town in the desert of Saudi Arabia, 44 miles from the Red Sea.

Its name is Mecca.

Moslems throughout the world face Mecca five times daily to pray. At least once in his lifetime, every Moslem who can afford the journey is expected to make a pilgrimage to the holy city.

Non-Moslems are forbidden to enter Mecca. But they can make the pilgrimage vicariously—and incidentally learn a great deal about the often-misunderstood religion of Islam—in the pages of a new book, "The Sacred Journey," published today by Duell, Sloan & Pearce ($6).

The author is Adhmad Kamal, an American-born Moslem of Tartar descent who has spent many years in the Middle East and Asia. He is president of the Jamiat Al Islam Foundation, worldwide Islamic relief agency.

Reason For Reverence

Kamal makes clear that the reverence which Moslems hold for Mecca does not stem—as many Westerners mistakenly believe—from the fact it is the birthplace of the Prophet Mohammed.

Mecca was sacred for thousands of years before Mohammed was born there in 571 A.D., he says, because it is the site of the first house of worship on earth—the temple at which Adam prayed after he was expelled from the Garden of Eden.

Moslems believe that this temple—"The Holy Ka'bah"—was destroyed by a great flood in the time of Noah, and was later rebuilt on the same spot by the Patriarch Abraham (from whom Moslems as well as Jews trace their descent).

"Today the Holy Ka'bah stands in massive, severe beauty: A simple cube-like edifice of stone and mortar veiled in blue-black cloth which is lettered in gold," Kamal reports. It occupies the center of "a great mosque courtyard, which may be entered through any one of 24 gates."

From All Over

Each year, in the season of the great pilgrimage, more than 500,000 Moslems from every corner of the world converge on this courtyard to pass seven times around the Holy Ka'bah, and to kiss or touch a black stone, mounted in heavy silver, which is set in the southeast corner. Moslems believe this stone was brought by the Angel Gabriel for Abraham's rebuilding of the temple.

Although a "lesser pilgrimage" to Mecca may be made at any time of the year, the "Hajj" or great pilgrimage must be made during the eighth, ninth and tenth days of the last month of the Moslem lunar calendar. (On the Western calendar, the next Hajj season begins May 11, 1962.)

Before entering Mecca, the pilgrims don seamless white robes. This costume is prescribed, Ahmad Kamal explains, to remove "distinctions" of wealth and rank that are associated with conventional clothing. "All, high-born and humble, wear identical robes, and we are reminded that in the eyes of God, all men are created equal."

The seven circuits around the Holy Ka'bah are the first of the pilgrimage rites, which continue for several days, and include visits to several other holy places in the vicinity of Mecca.

Throughout this period, each pilgrim is under strict vows to abstain from "luxuries and gratification of the senses," including sex relations. The use of perfume, jewelry or any other personal adornment is forbidden. There must be no violence of any kind, not even "wrangling or argument." To strike an enemy while he is on pilgrimage is one of the gravest sins a Moslem can commit.

In Islam, as in every other religion, there are those who confuse superstition with faith, who concentrate on the outward forms and symbols of worship at the expense of true spiritual devotion.

Kamal is aware of this danger. In his handbook for pilgrims, originally intended only for Moslem readers, he warns repeatedly that there is nothing magic about Mecca, the Holy Ka'bah, or the black stone.

"We venerate the holy places," he says, "but not for themselves. God and God alone is the object of our worship." Mecca is halloved ground because "our ancestors' ancestors, since the dawn of time, have worshipped before the Holy Ka'bah." But "the only diety in Mecca is God."

Hefferlin's Service Set At Theater

The Palm Springs Church of Religious Science, Ernest Holmes, founder, opens tomorrow at the Plaza Theater at 11 a.m., with services conducted by Dr. John Hefferlin.

Con Maffie will again be the organist for the church, and will play a special healing and meditation music from 10:45 to 11.

Dr. and Mrs. Hefferlin have returned to Palm Springs after a busy summer. The doctor conducted services at Founders' Church in Los Angeles and in churches of Religious Science from Pomona to Santa Cruz.

Hefferlin is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Church of Religious Science, Los Angeles, and is chairman of the 1961 Convention of Religious Science Churches.

THE LITTLE CHURCH OF THE DESERT, Twentynine Palms, is a Community Presbyterian Church, Paul L. Hall, minister. Sunday services include 9:30 a.m., worship and Sunday School classes and the regular Church Service at 11:00 a.m. Youth groups meet Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. The sermon scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 8, is entitled: "What's This We Are Doing?" (Desert Sun Photo)

Revolution Is P. D. Church Sermon Theme

At Palm Desert Community Church tomorrow, the Rev. Dean W. Miller will speak on the theme "Revolution — Christian Style" at the 11 a.m. Worship Service.

The thesis of his discussion is that we live in a world of revolution, but it is up to the Christian Church to step in and make it a revolution for the good of mankind, rather than his destruction.

At 9:30 a.m. Church School is held for children and young people fourth grade through high school. At 11 a.m. a second session of the Church School is conducted for children nursery age through third grade.

On Sunday, Oct. 15, organization meetings will be held for the junior high and senior high Youth Fellowship Groups. The junior high group will meet at 4:30 p.m. and the senior high at 6 p.m. All interested young people are invited to attend these Youth Fellowship meetings.

An important day in the life of the Palm Desert Community Church will be Sunday, Oct. 22, when the Rev. Dean W. Miller will be installed as pastor of the Church by the Presbytery of Riverside in a service held in the Church Sanctuary at 4 p.m. A reception will follow in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Dean W. Miller.

Rev. J. W. Arnold Will Speak From John's Love Text

Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor of the Community Church of Cathedral City, will present an analytical approach to the understanding of love at the 11 a.m. service.

The sermon topic will be, "The Anatomy of Love." The text is found in I John 4:19, "We love, because He first loved us." There is an urgent need for all to understand the application of love psychologically, sociologically, as well as emotionally, Rev. Arnold said.

Indians Come From Behind to Beat San Jac

ALMOST—but not quite into the end zone is Indian end Gus Walton in the third quarter last night against San Jacinto. Walton had taken a jump pass from Bill Bradley for a nine-yard gain and then Bradley went in for the score on next play. Tiger defenders in the picture are Larry Cutting, Sandy McOwen and Eagle Boucher. The Indians Steve Carrillo can be seen over McOwen's shoulder. (Desert Sun Photo)

Second Half Surge Again Triggers Springs' Victory

Palm Springs' fighting Indians overcame a halftime deficit, a lot of mistakes and a huge bad rash of penalties last night in a come-from-behind win over San Jacinto, 25-13.

Again they proved themselves a good second-half team, scoring 19 points after intermission to bring a 13-6 loss to the final victory. The tribe was also helped on occasion by some spectacular luck, most notably in the third period when Tiger End Sandy McOwen had a pass in the end zone and dropped it. Had he held on, it would have put the Tigers back in the lead by 19-12 and it might have turned the tide against the Tribe.

There were stars aplenty for the Indians during the night with some crisp tackling, and good line play which helped bottle up a very good running and passing game pretty well except for occasional lapses.

The Indians jumped out to a first period lead when Wayne Bussberg recovered a Tiger fumble on the Palm Springs 44, and the next play saw Tom Bradley ramble through the San Jacinto team for a 56 yard run and six points. Ernie Reyes attempt for the extra point was wide.

San Jacinto, which looked like a Big 10 team at times and like the Little League at others, went into the lead after a break when Bill Bradley's punt was blocked by his own interference and went over to the Tigers on the Palm Springs 20.

Booming Mike Steiner carried the ball three straight times for gains of nine, eight and two yards and then Larry Boucher went in for the score from the one. Quarterback Rich Johnson, whose passes kept the Indians loose all evening, tossed to McOwen for the extra point and the Tigers led 7-6 with six minutes left in the half.

Penalty Helps Tigers

That was enough for San Jacinto to score again, however. Two minutes later the Tigers were moving again after Steiner intercepted one of Tom Bradley's passes, and San Jac was in business on the Indians 19 yard line. Steve Carrillo threw Johnson for a loss, but one of those frequent anti-Indian penalties took the ball to the 14.

After Johnson overshot a pass, Boucher scampers the 14 yards for the score. Bill Bradley road-blocked Boucher's attempt for the extra point, and then the half ended in a series of penalties.

When the Indians took the kickoff to start the second half they were obviously on the war - path. Benny Wheeler took the kick three yards, to the Springs 27, but the tribe marched to pay-dirt in just five plays. In fact, they did it in three, but again the penalty ruined it — this time, nullifying a 62-yard jump pass play from Bill Bradley to End Gus Walton. After Ray Roberts carried to the Tigers 36, they tried to Bradley. Walton jump combo again and it worked even without penalties to bring the game to 13-12, still San Jac's favor.

Go-Ahead Score

The go-ahead TD came as a result of another break for the Indians. A Bill Bradley punt to the Tiger's Steiner was fumbled and the Indians recovered on the San Jacinto 47. From there, Roberts got to the 16 on a beautiful run after being almost trapped. Wheeler scooted to the 10, and Walton took another jump pass to the one, from where Bill Bradley scored. Bradley added the extra point for a 19-13 lead just before the quarter ended.

Final score came when Gus Walton boomed right through the Tiger line from the San Jac 13 five minutes into the last period. The drive started on the Tiger 37 when San Jacinto ran out of downs by gambling on two incomplete Johnson passes.

Down by 12 points, the Tigers tried a "shot-gun" offense in the fourth period and were making good gains until Tom Bradley intercepted a pass on his own 10 as the game ended.

It took some speedy and shifty running by Wheeler, Roberts, the Bradleys, and Walton to overcome the gallant Tiger team. Their passing attack is a smooth operation, and they should do all right in the De Anza league this year — even though they have lost their first three practice games.

A Pair of Steves

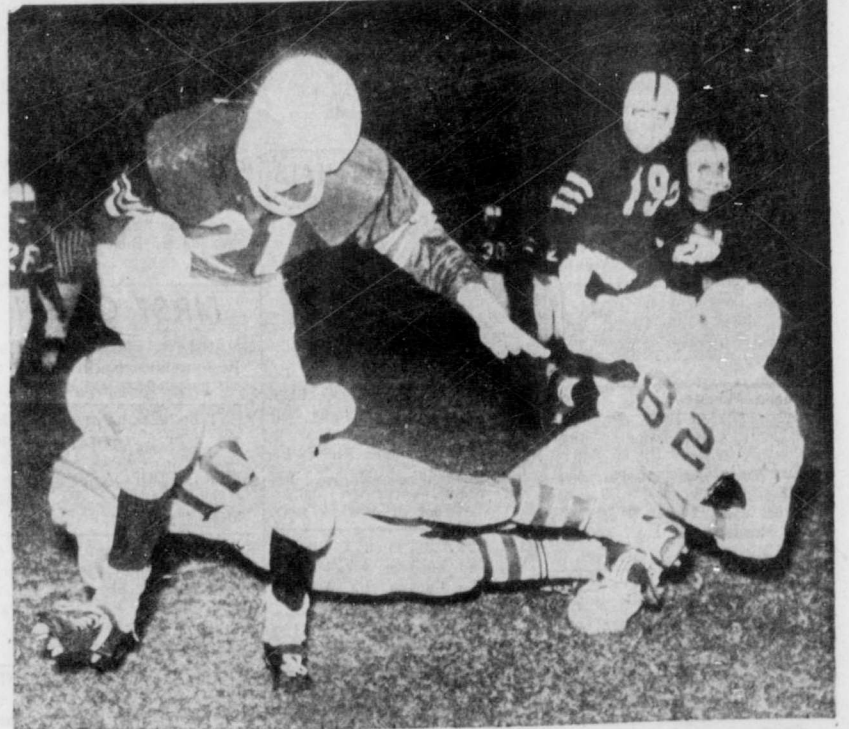

The Indian defense was tough when it had to be, and San Jac's star quarterback was picking Indians out of his hair all evening. A pair of Steves — Foster and Carrillo — did a stellar job at the defensive end slots.

If the tribe would play the first half each week, as they do the second, they might win the Desert Valley title. Coach Dick Bunting's crew has the speed and savvy to go all the way.

Trout Limit Reduced by 5

LOS ANGELES — Southern California trout fishermen were reminded today by the Department of Fish and Game that as of last Sunday, the limit is reduced from ten to the regular winter limit of five trout. This limit will remain in effect through March 31, 1962.

The changed limit applies in the counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, San Diego, and Riverside — except for the Colorado River Area, where the ten trout limit remains in force.

The DFG has just resumed its annual fall planting of catchable rainbow trout in the Colorado River around Needles. In addition, the DFG planted trout in the cooler river water just below Parker Dam in the fall of 1959, and Arizona made a plant here last year.

Southlanders were also reminded that trout fishing in Southern California is on an all-year basis, with no closed season. In the remainder of the state, trout season will close Oct. 31.

Down by 12 points, the Tigers tried a "shot-gun" offense in the fourth period and were making good gains until Tom Bradley intercepted a pass on his own 10 as the game ended.

Marinko Leads Pacemaker Play

Joe Marinko proved he knows every foot of his alleys last night as he paced the Pacemakers league at PS Bowl with high game and series.

His game tops was 207 in a 548 series. Lido Terrace held on to first place in the standings although they were tumbled by Moose Lodge, 3-1. On other games, Blotter Electric blanked Simsarian and Freeman Foster beat Ethel's Hideaway, 3-1.

Highlight of the evening's play was Tom Sills' pick-up of a 5-7-4 split.

Slope in Reds' Outfield May Prove Crucial in Series Play

Hesperia Open Starts Today, Fleck Favored

HESPERIA, Calif. (UPI)—Touring professional golfers and celebrities paired off today in an 18-hole pro-amateur preliminary to the $12,500 Hesperia Open.

The pros go it alone tomorrow in a one-day 36-hole open for the big money. In order to get the two rounds in during daylight hours, the first group of pros will tee off at 7 a.m. p.s.t.

Many of the leading finishers at last weekend's Bakersfield Open are here to take their shots on this 36-36-72 par Hesperia Country Club course. A verdant patch in the midst of the high desert of the San Bernardino Mountains.

Bakersfield winner Jack Fleck, a former U.S. Open champion, may well be the favorite since he's in a hot streak. He and Bob Rosburg, the former Stanford University baseball player, were tied at the end of 72 holes at Bakersfield. Fleck whipped Rosburg by firing a birdie on the first hole of the sudden-death playoff.

BIG HANDS of Cincinnati pitcher Bob Purkey can hold 10 baseballs which must be some sort of a record. He can only throw one at a time, however, when he's on the mound as he was scheduled to be in the third game of the World Series. The astounded spectator is his manager, Freddie Hutchinson. Deadline Nears For Entry in Tennis Play

Deadline is fast approaching for tennis buffs to sign up for play in the annual City tournament which starts Oct. 10. City Recreation Director Howard Haddock reports that all entries must be in by Monday afternoon at 5 p.m.

Competition this year is open to all local residents and property owners and is an annual event sponsored by the city. Usually it is held in the Spring, but a Fall date was planned this year.

Entry blanks may be obtained at the City Hall from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and all tennis enthusiasts from eight to 80 are eligible, Haddock said.

Men and women singles, doubles and mixed doubles will be played if at least eight enter in a division. Games will be held at the Racquet Club where David Gillam will be co-chairman of the event.

Further information may be obtained by calling the recreation office at City Hall, 324-1131.

Still No Players, But Team Gets New Ball Park

NEW YORK (UPI)—The new National League baseball entry in New York is still without any players but it is guaranteed of soon having a ball park.

The official signatures of M. Donald Grant, chairman of the and Freeman Foster beat Tehel's city parks Commissioner Newbold Morris were placed on the appropriate lines Friday to grant the new club a 30-year lease to use the soon-to-be-constructed Municipal Stadium.

However, the $19 million stadium will not be ready in time for the Mets to use it when they make their major league debut next season. Instead they will use the Polo Grounds, home of the former New York Giants.

Construction of the stadium which will be built in Flushing Meadow Park should be finished by next fall, though, and ready for occupancy by the New York Titans of the American Football League. The Titans are expected to sign a 20-year lease for the stadium within the next two weeks.
